To everything there is a season...

A time to build up
A time to weep and a time
to laugh
A time to keep silence and
a time to speak
A time to plant

Thank you,
Mr. Beard

Reverend Stanley Beard

We want to thank you, Mr. Beard. Thank you for going far beyond the call of duty in so faithfully serving our college family. We know that, with you, working here is much more than just a job.

You have fixed things when others couldn't and you have stopped just to talk, when others wouldn't. Your ready smile and your friendly greeting reflect Christian love. Your interest in us as individuals shows that you care. We appreciate this.

Be assured that faculty, staff and students alike join with our committee in saying thank you. Thus with pride we dedicate this 1970 Μαχαιρα to you.

Alumni... serving around the world.

Dr. Boehmer

A Message from our President

TIME

The wise man said, "For every thing there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven". Then he elaborated - "a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; a time to break down, and a time to build up; a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak... ."

At first he concludes that all is vanity and profitless. In effect, he cries, "What's the gain of it all?" But then he advances a step. He recognizes that all this travail must be of God, Who has produced these never-ending changes so that men's hearts may be exercised thereby.

To be sure, we are exposed to change on every hand. God alone is immutable. We change all too quickly. Yesterday we were young and hearty. Today we are aging. Today we may view things with the perspective of youthful vision. Tomorrow our eyesight will be blurred.

"Tempus fugit." Time flies, yea, it races. And the issue becomes more clearly defined with the passing of the days. It's not how long we live, but how well, that counts. That brings us to the present moment, which, on reflection, is all that we have. Tomorrow is not ours. In fact, it never comes. And yesterday, with its heartaches and disappointments, is gone. Only today remains.

But what a legacy it is! Not only has the child of God twenty-four hours in which to serve his Creator. By God's grace he can begin that day without a mark upon it, and with nothing between his soul and the Saviour.

Young people, God has brought you to this hour and to this place for a purpose. If you redeem the time and buy up the opportunities that He has placed in your hands, your future is as bright as the promises of God. May you experience His smile of approval each hour of the day! With Paul, "forget those things which are behind, and....press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus."

Informative,

Entertaining,

Provocative.

Marketplace is a bi-weekly student publication of Ontario Bible College.

Ideas germinating in the mind of a staff member or contributor begin the cycle of events leading to the publication of each issue. These are researched and written up by the editorial staff or a guest reporter.

Copy, sometimes hastily scratched out, after editing, is interpreted by competent typists.

The photographer may get shots to illustrate a story.

While this process goes on, office staff cares for business details and the sale of ads.

The layout people then take copy, illustrations and ads, arranging them on the basis of importance and content to fit the eight pages.

After printing, Marketplace is picked up and then placed in each reader's mail box.

CLASS HYMN

Not I, but Christ, be honored, loved, exalted;
Not I, but Christ, be seen, be known, be heard;
Not I, but Christ, in every look and action;
Not I, but Christ, in every thought and word.

Not I, but Christ, to gently soothe in sorrow;
Not I, but Christ, to wipe the falling tear;
Not I, but Christ, to lift the weary burden!
Not I, but Christ, to hush away all fear.

Not I, but Christ, in lowly, silent labor;
Not I, but Christ, in humble, earnest toil;
Christ, only Christ! no show, no ostentation!
Christ, none but Christ, the gatherer of the spoil.

Christ, only Christ, ere long will fill my vision;
Glory excelling, soon, full soon, I'll see--
Christ, only Christ, my every wish fulfilling--
Christ, only Christ, my All in all to be.

This was Ontario Bible School, until 1950, when we changed our name to Niagara Christian College. Like Ontario Bible College, we are conservative and evangelical; unlike it, our courses are on the secondary level only. We are under the supervision of the Department of Education and teach a wide range of academic options from a Christian perspective. Our fees for tuition and board are well below $1000 per year, and there are scholarships and bursaries available. We will be glad to send you a calendar, if you write to

To every thing
There is a Season
And a time
To every purpose under Heaven

A time to be born
A time to die
A time to plant
A time to reap
A time to pluck up
That which is planted

A time to kill
A time to heal
A time to break down
A time to build up

A time to weep
A time to laugh
A time to mourn
A time to dance

A time to cast
Away stones
A time to gather
Stones together
A time to embrace
A time to refrain
From embracing

A time to get
A time to lose
A time to keep
A time to cast away

A time to rend
A time to sew
A time to keep silence
A time to speak
A time to love
A time to hate
A time of war
And a time of peace

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8
